

Name: _____

First Conditional Worksheet

IF	CONDITIONAL	RESULT
	Present Simple Tense	Will/Won't and the Base Verb
if	He runs fast,	He will win the race

RESULT	IF	CONDITION
Will/Won't and the Base Verb		Present Simple Tense
He will win the race	if	He runs fast

We can use the first conditional when the result of the sentence is very likely to happen. For example:
If it snows I will get cold.

Can you complete the sentence using the first conditional? We have completed the first one for you.

1. I will stay (stay) at home if it rains (rain) this morning.
2. If my family _____ (argue) a lot, I _____ (be) very upset.
3. You _____ (not pass) the exam if you _____ (do not) study harder.
4. I _____ (get) into trouble if I _____ (talk) in class.
5. If we _____ (go) to the swimming pool, I _____ (be) tired later.
6. She _____ (be) unhappy if she _____ (miss) the bus.
7. If they _____ (run) fast, they _____ (win) the race.
8. They _____ (be) hungry if they _____ (skip) their dinner.
9. The children _____ (be) bored, if they can't _____ (go) out tomorrow.
10. The students _____ (be) happy, if the school _____ (be) closed for a day.
11. I _____ (go) out if my friends _____ (be) there.
12. If you _____ (see) a dinosaur, you _____ (be) scared.
13. My mother _____ (take) grandma to the doctor if she _____ (feels) worse in the morning.
14. If you _____ (watch) what you eat, you _____ (feel) better.
15. Jane, if you _____ (not get) up, we _____ (leave) without you.
16. Your dad _____ (be) so happy if you _____ (meet) him after work.
17. If it _____ (pour) with rain, we _____ (get) soaked.

Name: _____

First Conditional Worksheet

We can use first conditional when talking about future events that are likely to happen.

- If she wins an award, she will be happy.
- she will be happy if she wins an award a fish.

Can you complete the sentence using the first conditional? We have completed the first one for you.

1. I will stay (stay) at home if it rains (rain) this morning.
2. If my family _____ (argue) a lot, I _____ (be) very upset.
3. You _____ (not pass) the exam if you _____ (do not) study harder.
4. I _____ (get) into trouble if I _____ (talk) in class.
5. If we _____ (go) to the swimming pool, I _____ (be) tired later.
6. She _____ (be) unhappy if she _____ (miss) the bus.
7. If they _____ (run) fast, they _____ (win) the race.
8. They _____ (be) hungry if they _____ (skip) their dinner.
9. The children _____ (be) bored, if they can't _____ (go) out tomorrow.
10. The students _____ (be) happy, if the school _____ (be) closed for a day.
11. I _____ (go) out if my friends _____ (be) there.
12. If you _____ (see) a dinosaur, you _____ (be) scared.

Name: _____

First Conditional Worksheet

IF	CONDITIONAL	RESULT
	Present Simple Tense	Will/Won't and the Base Verb
if	He runs fast,	He will win the race

RESULT	IF	CONDITION
Will/Won't and the Base Verb		Present Simple Tense
He will win the race	if	He runs fast

Can you finish the first conditional sentences with the verbs in brackets.

1. If you _____ (press) the button, the lift _____ (go) up.
2. We _____ (stop) for lunch if we _____ (have) time.
3. If you _____ (eat) all your dinner, we _____ (watch) the movie.
4. He _____ (do) well if he _____ (practice) everyday.
5. If you _____ (pay) for lunch, I _____ (pay) for dinner.
6. If it _____ (rain) today, we _____ (take) an umbrella.
7. If she _____ (drive) dangerously she _____ (get) stopped by the police.
8. If you _____ (walk slowly), you _____ (miss) the bus.
9. They _____ (wait) for you, if you _____ (be) quick.
10. You _____ (feel) better, if you _____ (take) a rest today.
11. If someone _____ (open) the door, the dog _____ (run) out.
12. If she _____ (leaves) before 7, she _____ (arrive) in time for lunch.

Can you match the two halves of the first conditional sentences?

- | | |
|-------------------------|---------------------------|
| I'll pay for dinner | The teacher will see them |
| If it snows | we will go to the beach |
| If you pay for lunch | You will pass the exam |
| We will build a snowman | If they aren't careful |
| If it is sunny | If you study hard |

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____